Who is Bartholomew Gosnold?

The answers to all these questions, and more, are at FalmouthMass.US

The Town of Falmouth Web Site

Serving Falmouth Since 1995

The Town Hall at Your Fingertips!
The Town of Falmouth web site was unveiled on July 31, 1995. The entire site had fewer than 10 pages of fixed information.

Today’s site has hundreds of pages, delivered in real time, and has become a valuable resource in the community.

What You’ll Find Here

- Department information
- Meeting agendas and minutes
- Election Results
- Visitor and business information
- Interactive lookup of property values
- Trash & Recycle Schedules
- Forms
- Voter information
- Town meeting warrant
- Weather
- Photos
- Games!
- Webcams, and more...

Here are just a few of the site’s features:

Town Code

The entire Town Code is available with easy navigation to help you find what you’re looking for.

Found a Dog?

Just enter the dog’s Falmouth tag year and number, and you’ll find the dog’s name and owner’s phone number, so everyone can have a happy reunion.

GIS Maps

Our Geographic Information System maps and layers are presented in an easy to use, interactive interface. Layers such as parcels and aerial photos let you customize your view.

Meeting Schedule

A scrolling calendar of meetings and other events is conveniently located on the home page.

Yard Sale Map

All sailors should have a map, and yard sailors are no exception. The map is updated every time a yard sale permit is issued.

FAQ

Displaying FAQ for Board of Assessors.

Q: What is the current property tax rate?
A: The Fiscal year 2007 (July 1, 2006 through June 30, 2007) tax rate of $1.00 per $100 of assessed value.

Q: How is Market Value established?
A: The best evidence of market value is the arm’s length, reasonably comparable properties. These are properties in location, age, style, condition, and other factors.

Frequently Asked Questions for many departments can often save you a phone call or even a trip downtown.

We are now FalmouthMass.US